Tote your gear in style

SAILING INTO COMFORT

This classically styled and comfortable Georgia Nautical satchel has plenty of pockets to keep photographic and personal gear organized. The faux leather exterior is complemented by a dark blue cotton lining. Best feature: security. The antique metal hardware locks shut, and the iPad pocket is zippered. Jo Totes; $107; jototes.com

NEW CONVERTIBLE

Brooklyn is that rarest of photographic accessories: a fashionable camera backpack. You can load up this chic bag and carry it all day. It accommodates a 15-inch laptop, iPad or tablet, camera with attached lens, one long lens, one short lens, flash, battery pack, and wallet. Best feature: Easily converts from backpack to messenger bag to accommodate your travel and shooting needs. Epiphanie; $224.99; epiphaniebags.com

BYE-BYE BOXY

Move over, boxy camera carrier, there's a new bag in town. She's well bred but knows how to hang. An ideal merger of function and style, the Classic Canvas bag boasts seven padded compartments that allow customizable stashing with room for a laptop and water bottle. Best feature: Looks and carries like a traditional handbag, and you'll love the extra protection of the metal feet on the bottom. Emera; $169; emerabags.com

CRAFTED BY HAND

Handcrafted of water-resistant waxed canvas and detailed with full-grain leather, the Brixton camera bag is a compact solution for carrying a DSLR, two to three lenses, and a 13-inch laptop. It has four removable dividers, two front pockets, and a back pocket with enough room for an iPad or Moleskine. Best feature: The waxed canvas makes this an ideal outdoor bag, especially for early morning dew-drenched shoots. Ona; $269; www.onabags.com

CASUAL ELEGANCE

Rich looking yet casual, the Classic Collection 13-inch Laptop Backpack contains a special secure compartment for a 13-inch laptop. The optional insert holds a professional camera gear set. Best feature: The removable insert allows you to pack your gear carefully outside the bag before stowing it inside. Jill-e; $69.99 (plus $34.99 for optional camera gear insert); www.jill-e.com

DESIGNED FOR YOU

Porteen Gear puts you in charge of the bag design, with a choice of more than 100 fabrics and several leathers. The body of the bag is made of water-repellent waxed canvas that ages beautifully. The flap is made of high-quality leather and the straps of heavy-duty polypropylene webbing. Durable Rhino Twill lines the interior. Best feature: You control the look and function of your bag. Porteen Gear; from $101; portteengear.com

GOING TO THE CHAPEL

The charming Chapel Convertible Backpack packs a camera body with grip, 9-inch lens, flash, phone, batteries, accessories, and an iPad. Best feature: The back zipper pocket has slots for compact flash cards and credit cards so photo gear stays safely stowed inside when you grab your keys and whatnots. Kelly Moore; $229; kellymoorebag.com

ON SAFARI

You don't have to venture into the outback to appreciate how the Safari is more than just a beautiful bag. Made of durable leather and lined in soft cotton, it can handle your camera with attached lens, extra lenses, 15-inch laptop, and life's extra necessities. Remove the inserts and use it as a handbag. Best feature: The lens cap holder keeps your cap where it belongs and always within reach. Shutter Bag; $299.95; shutterbagusa.com

STYLISH SURVIVOR

Loaded with pockets and supported by a wide webbing shoulder strap, this Medium DSLR Messenger Bag sports black and gray herringbone wool. The removable insert for a camera and lenses has two adjustable dividers with Velcro attachments. Best feature: The incredible interior padding looks durable enough to survive whatever you might throw at it. Stash Bags; $159 to $199; stash-bags.com
